

What nationality are you?

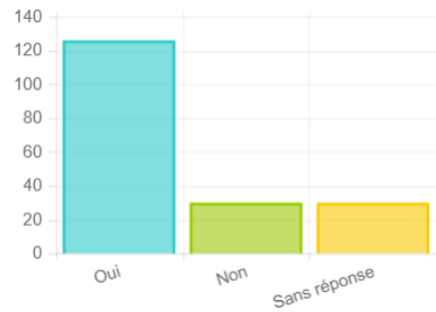

Are you male or female?

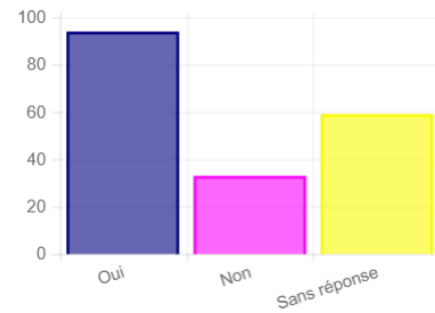

Do you know the number of immigrants living in your country?

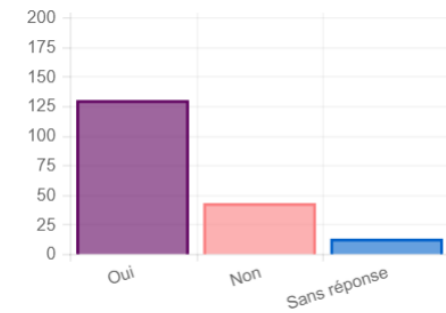

In your opinion, should Europe accept a larger number of refugees?

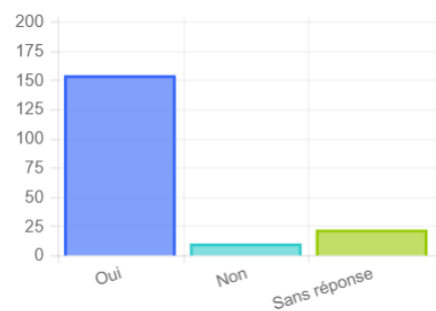

Is the presence of migrants an asset to a country?

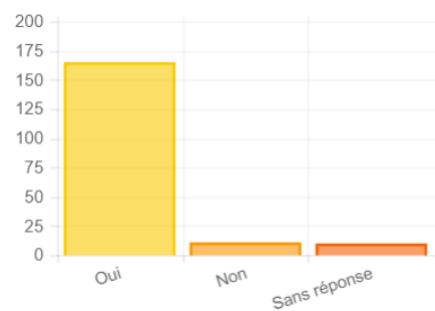

Integration into a new culture is a difficult thing

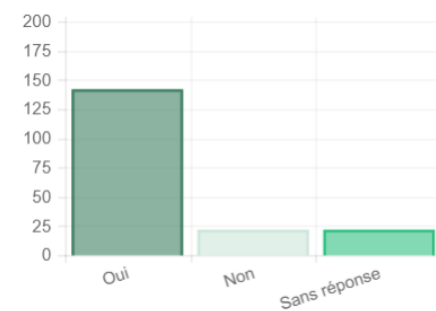

Is it important for immigrants to be able to maintain their original culture?

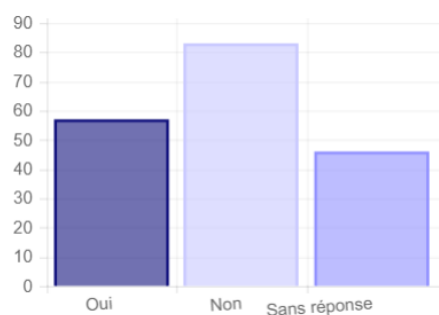

Do you think it is a plus to have parents who come from two different cultures?

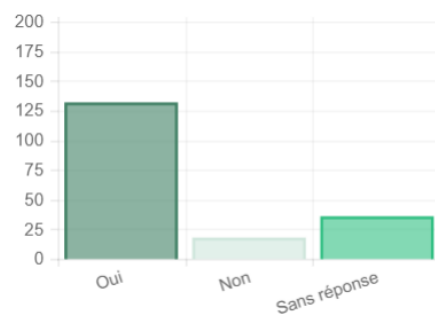

The work possibilities of migrants in Europe are more difficult than for native workers.

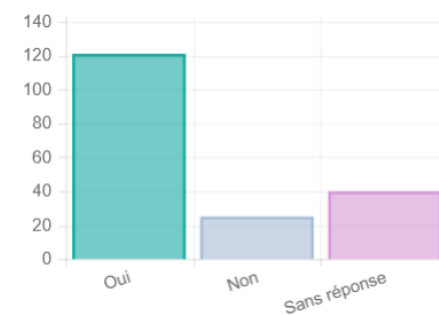

Would you consider giving up your nationality to become a naturalized citizen in a new country?

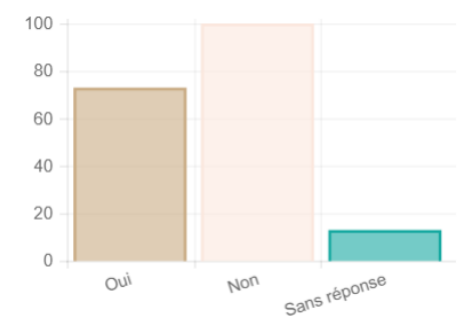

Migrant workers should be allowed to bring their family.

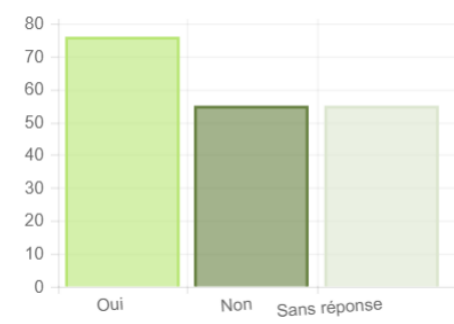

Refugees should be allowed to bring their family.

In your daily life you are often in contact with immigrants.

I would invite an immigrant to my home.

I think it is positive to live in a multicultural society.

