It was interesting. People were very gentle and nice. It was cool because we could have known the world where people escape from their countries to stay safe and find kind people like Nazareth Association who help them.

It was very incredible and exciting.

Yesterday was interesting.

You get another perspective on migration when you talk with people who has experienced it themselves. The people were lovely.

The meeting with the boys gave us the possibility to see a good and concrete action about the problems that young immigrants have.

We are very happy that those boys are helped and that they have the possibility to start a new life with their new families.

We spent a lovely time talking with them and we wish them the best.

Yesterday we ^{of} went to „Via Grande“ ~~and~~ in the center of migrants „Casa di Nazareth.“
It was beautiful place and interesting.

We think the guys in this place are best courage and patients because they have escaped in their village for this situation of hunger, poverty and war. They go in Italy for study ~~to~~ and find work.

It was very interesting to listen to stories and see how these people believe in their dream. They got security and it's a real proof of humanity.
